

Integrated Management System Policy

We, at Nava Limited (“Nava”), are committed to satisfaction of customers and other interested parties, protection of environment and to provide safe and healthy working conditions for the prevention of work-related injury and ill health.

We shall achieve this by committing ourselves and striving to:

- a) producing and supplying Energy and Ferro Alloys fulfilling all the requirements,
- b) minimizing the impact of our processes on the environment, protecting environment by prevention of pollution, conserving resources, reducing, reusing and recycling wastes and development of green belt in and around our plants,
- c) Eliminating of hazards and taking effective measures to reduce OH&S risks
- d) complying with applicable legal and other requirements,
- e) ensuring effective emergency preparedness and responses,
- f) encouraging consultation and participation of workers and continual improvement of our processes, and, environmental, health and safety performance.