

Nava Bharat Ventures Limited, Paloncha, Telangana, bagged FTCCI Excellence Award-2021 for excellence in social welfare initiatives for women empowerment.

Kothagudem: NBVL bags FTCCI Excellence Award 2021

BY TELANGANA TODAY

PUBLISHED DATE - 07:10 PM, WED - 22 JUNE 22

Kothagudem: Paloncha based Nava Bharat Ventures Limited (NBVL) bagged FTCCI Excellence Award-2021. The Federation of Telangana Chambers of Commerce and Industry (FTCCI) has chosen the NBVL for Jamunadevi Tibrewala Award instituted by Hyderabad based Omprakash Tibrewala Foundation for excellence in social welfare initiatives for women empowerment.

In a statement here on Wednesday the NBVL vice president Y Sreenivasa Murthy said that the company has been imparting vocational and skill development training to poor rural women through its Nava Bharat Women Empowerment Centre. Women were being trained free of cost in tailoring, embroidery, sanitary napkins, jute bags and palm leaf decorative articles making besides beautician and computer courses like DTP and Tally to help them earn a livelihood, he said.

Nava Bharat has set up an English Language Lab at Paloncha in the district to help the youth overcome challenges they face in learning the language. Youth were being trained through a special language learning software. So far over 3000 women were trained at the centre which was established in 2015 by Nava Bharat as part of its CSR activities. A self-employment centre was also established to provide employment by engaging women in school uniform making.

The women trained at the empowerment centre set up Nava Yuga Women Cooperative Society in 2018 and they achieved a turnover of Rs 60 lakh so far. IT Minister KT Rama Rao would present the award to NBVL at a ceremony at HICC Novotel, Hyderabad on July 4, Murthy informed.

Nava Bharat wins prestigious award

Nava Bharat Ventures vice-president V Sreenivas Murthy presenting certificates to women after the completion of a vocational training programme (File Photo)

HANS NEWS SERVICE KOTHAGUDEM

NAVA Bharat Ventures Limited has been selected for the FTCCI Excellence Awards 2021, informed company vice-president Y Srinivas Murthy. He the award comprising a trophy and citation will be presented 4th July at HiCC Novotel in Hyderabad on July 4 by the Minister for Urban Development and Industries and the Principal Secretary Jayesh Ranjan. Murthy said the company was active in social service, carrying out a number of programmes in agency areas. Its programmes are aimed at women empowerment, as part of which the company has been conducting vocational courses and skill development programmes for women for the last several years. Nearly 3,000 women underwent various courses conducted by the company so far. The courses are designed to make the participants stand on their own financially. A number of women settled down in their lives after the training. The executive expressed happiness on the company being selected for the prestigious award of FTCCI. He conveyed special thanks to the management and staff.